PLEA TO OUR NEIGHBORS.

We Warn You to Take Proper Steps to Rid Your Community of Out-Laws, Etc.

The good people of Wybark should by all fair means stop the lawlessness going on around wybark station. This throwing of rocks and cinders at train men when they are passing or cutting out cars should be, and must be stopped at once. Only a few days ago some mean boys or men threw a ear of corn striking a brakeman on the head while sitting in his caboose stunning him for some time; the same brakeman has been struck with pieces of cinders thrown by this same or like mean persons. This element, friends, are hurting your community; they are giving you a hard name from one end of the R. R. line to the other. These railroad men are in dread of you, retaliation is their one defense. Now in the name of the law and for your own good stop this hellishness. Call a committee of your law abiding citizens and appoint some one as a detective and ferret out and catch these devils and turn them over to the law, regardless of whom they are. Their doings will hurt you and your neighborhood, each and everyone are classified with the worse. Stop it, we beg you, stop screaming these law breakers.

There are many good law-abiding people in Wybark, for we know them, but you will come you will come under the bane of that worthless element if this thing is not stopped.

Not long since we heard an official say, "We will just let those Negroes in Wybark alone until they kill each other out as we can't afford to have marshalls deterred in their duty by the screaming of lawless ones. As long as they do their devilment among themselves we will let them go." Now we trust we will never have cause to warn you again. We can't nor will we indorse this lawlessness, it must be stopped. It hurts not only you of Wybark, but the Negroes of the entire country surrounding you. Stop it, we plead, stop it.

Kempt, I. T., May 12, 1905.

Editor, Muskogee Cimeter:— Please allow space in your most conservative paper to speak a few words.

Your paper has a hearty welcome in this community for the manly position you take against the immoral leaders of the Negro race. Honest men can not getwork on account of immoral trickster. It is through tricks that some men get positions, then it is only a short time before shame and disgrace are brought on many good people on account of them.

That man who would barter and destroy the morals of his neighbor's daughter is unworthy of manhood. Our attention must be turned, principally, to bettering the conditions of our public institution by letting the world know the conduct of some of the immoral leaders of our race. The man or woman among us who is of questionable character must be sat down upon. Those who associate with the immoral must be separated from the good and loyal people.

May the time come, when every journal will take high grounds and be manly.

N. L. Wirdlow.
